K of C

Over the next several weeks, the Knights of Columbus will be very active preparing dinners for our parish.

On Saturday, February 8th, the Knights will be preparing a burgers and brats dinner sponsored by the parish. There is no charge for dinner, but donations are welcome.

On Saturday, February 15th, the Knights will be hosting a spaghetti and meatballs dinner as a fundraiser for our charitable work. The price for meals has increased to $15 per person and $25 per family.

Did you know Lent is right around the corner? During each Friday of Lent (March 5 – April 17), the Knights will be leading Stations of the Cross beginning at 5 PM. Following Stations, we'll be selling fish dinners in the social hall. We look forward to a successful Lent, increasing the Holy Spirit in our lives and renewing our commitment to Christ.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

As a result of the parish vote, on February 8th, 2025, our parish family will be moving to a new weekend mass schedule. Due to the reduction in mass times, we are expecting more people in every mass. We are working to make this process as smooth as possible and developing new ways to ensure our parish stays connected and strong. Instead of coffee and donuts, we are planning to host a community meal or "snacks and sips" after every Saturday mass. We are looking for more volunteers to help make this possible. If you are interested in volunteering, even in a position not listed, please reach out to the volunteer coordinators at ICCMinistryVolunteer@gmail.com or leave a message with the parish office (360) 435-8565.
